

Bailey SRA appointed by NSW Local Government Procurement to the Internal Audit and Management Consulting Services Panel.

News 30 September 2024

Bailey SRA is pleased to announce its appointment to the NSW Local Government Procurement to the Internal Audit and Management Consulting Services Panel.

Managing Director, Michael Saad, conveyed his enthusiasm at the appointment, saying, 'This is an exciting time for Bailey SRA as we extend and deepen our engagement with the local government sector. We are dedicated to leveraging our expertise to partner with local councils across NSW to navigate the strategic and operational risks they face and the provision of contemporary assurance to aid them in supporting the delivery of objectives in the public interest.'

'We value the privilege of serving the whole government sector and have demonstrated our commitment over the past decade through ongoing investments in our public sector practice. The Bailey SRA team proudly offers a contemporary and modern perspective and leading expertise to all levels of government.'

'This milestone marks significant growth for the Bailey SRA's government practice, expanding its service offering at the local council level. It also acknowledges our commitment to genuinely partnering with government to better deliver its strategy, mitigate risk and provide meaningful and tailored assurance. That is what sets us apart and drives us forward.'

Bailey SRA is a boutique management consulting firm, specialising in strategy, risk management and assurance services. We service all Australian states and have partnership arrangements globally. We build partnerships with and service corporate, public sector and private clients, both Australian-based and international.